Dear Mr. Feldstein:

Thank you very much for your letter of 29 December 1959 inviting me to address the Freshman class of Brown University at a class dinner in the latter part of March.

I sincerely regret that I will be unable to accept your kind invitation, even though you were good enough to give me the choice of a date. In view of my present official position, it is necessary for me to restrict my speaking engagements to the various government service schools with an infrequent outside address. Unfortunately I cannot make an additional commitment at this time.

Your courtesy in asking me to join you is indeed appreciated.

Sincerely,
